Legal Adviser, Public Sector • Fujitsu Services • Thames Valley

Fujitsu are looking to recruit a lawyer to provide legal support to its UK Public Sector Business Unit in connection with all aspects of its commercial and business affairs. This will include advising on customer, supplier and other contracts, including major outsourcing transactions, especially in the health and defence government sectors.

To succeed in this role, you will have at least 4 years' PQE ideally gained as an IT lawyer within private practice or at an in-house role in a technology business, and experience of major outsourcing projects particularly in the public sector would be an advantage.

It is essential that you are able to demonstrate your commercial awareness and experience, and that you are tenacious. You will be keen to understand the capabilities of IT and be straight talking about the benefits it can deliver. You must be able to demonstrate excellent communication skills and the ability to be in tune with your colleagues at all levels and, most importantly, Fujitsu's customers.

Candidates will be selected on the basis of their relevant skills and experience. Where we have stated a minimum or maximum level of qualification, candidates who wish to apply are welcome to do so and will be considered on an equal basis where they can demonstrate equivalent levels of skills and experience.

Please send your CV to our exclusively retained consultant Becky Morgan T: 020 7845 4296 E: beckymorgan@lawprofessionals.co.uk

All CVs sent to Fujitsu will be forwarded to Law Professionals. Law Professionals is a recruitment agency and part of Hydrogen Group Plc.
