Legal Counsel • London

An exciting opportunity has arisen to join and contribute towards the ongoing development of the Legal Department of Man Group plc and Man Investments. The Legal Department's broad commercial practice encompasses M&A, corporate, capital markets, banking, intellectual property and high-profile projects and is integral to Man Group plc's strategic business objectives.

Working in-house within a FTSE 100 company, your technical competency will need to be aligned to commercial drive and you will thrive on the challenge of advising on a diverse range of UK and international matters requiring pragmatic and high quality solutions. Between 1-4 years PQE, you are likely to be experienced in corporate, M&A and/or asset management. You will be a dynamic team player with excellent interpersonal skills who has a strong desire to develop and build upon your existing experience and thrive in a high visibility role engaging at all levels of the business.

Applications welcome from candidates who have relevant private practice or industry experience.

Professional Support Manager / Lawyer (Full or part time) • London

Within this role, you will provide crucial and specialist support by way of knowledge management to our multi-disciplinary product structuring, product financing and legal functions. This role is integral to the department and has a strong business engagement. Communication of key developments and their impact to the business; preparing presentations, briefing notes and intelligence in advance of key events and meetings and acting as interface with significant trade bodies and associations will be your focus.

The ideal candidate will have asset management and/or regulatory experience and have a strong appetite to apply that knowledge productively across our complex business. You are likely to have in excess of 3 years PQE and potentially substantially more and you may currently be in a fee earning or a professional support lawyer role, and should have a strong interest in the asset management world. The role could be performed on a part time basis.

Man Group plc provides a dynamic working environment in the world of alternative investment management with ample opportunities for personal development within its legal functions that were recently and independently recognised by a recent in-house survey for its quality of work, culture and career options.
